

Mermaid

I scan the horizon
For signs of you.
Only water
Out on this sea.

But I know you are there.

With love -
I want to provide what you need
And give you what you want.

In love -
I long for your touch,
Your smile,
Your embrace,
Your time.

I melt -
In your gaze,
At your voice,
In your hands.

This voyage
Will not last forever.
May I find your love
And your arms
On my return.
